

A surreal illustration for a production of 'Alice in Wonderland'. The White Rabbit, dressed in a red and yellow patterned tunic with a white ruff and a blue bow, is playing a golden trumpet. He stands on a blue and white checkered floor that recedes into a blue sky with white clouds. In the background, a large, golden, circular archway frames a scene of a castle with a tall spire. The sky is filled with various golden keys and pocket watches hanging from chains. The overall color palette is dominated by blue, gold, and white.
